Effective addressing of gross violations of human rights requires a comprehensive approach, comprising of truth, justice, reparations and guarantees of non-recurrence. In the framework of Argentina’s experience on the implementation of the four pillars of the fight against impunity, the movie “True truths” describes a personal and collective history of struggle, search and reunion with the 117 grandchildren who recovered their true identity through the work of the Abuelas de Plaza de Mayo.

Movie in Spanish with subtitles in English
